EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

As per last week, I am delighted (and relieved) to announce that once again the sick and housebound in our parish can benefit from the services of the Eucharistic Ministers.

It is so important to many people that they are able to receive Holy Communion although they cannot come to Mass, so I warmly invite all those who carried out this role before lockdown to please let me know whether they are willing and able to continue now. Perhaps you would like to begin to be a minister, being new to the parish or simply never having thought about it before. Either way, please drop me (Fr James) an email or a phone call so I can put your name on the list; once I have a good number we can begin straight away.

You do not have to be especially "holy" to be a Eucharistic Minister, but a Catholic in good standing who has a deep reverence and love for the Blessed Sacrament, and a love and care for the people to whom you will be administering it. I am looking forward very much to hearing from you!

Thank you.

Fr James.

Thought for the Week

If the world could see the beauty of a soul without sin, all sinners, all nonbelievers would instantly convert (their lives).

St. Padre Pio

CAFOD Harvest Fast Day

Envelopes are on the Usher's table, and can be handed in at any time.

Bulletin availability

Now the church is open from 9am-5pm (Tues 3pm), please help yourself to bulletins from the back.

Prayer to St Michael

Holy Michael, Archangel, defend us in the day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust down into hell Satan and all the wicked spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.

Hymns

Entrance: 325 This day God gives me

Communion: 294 Sweet Sacrament divine

Recessional: 460 Follow me, follow me

The new normal

As a reminder:

- Singing: We will have hymns on the weeks when Charlie is available. However, please do continue to wear your masks when singing.
- Coffee: We would encourage you to take your coffee outside, if feasible; and to keep your mask on when moving about the room. If you would be prepared to go onto a rota for serving coffee, please let Kathryn know. We are very grateful kind offers received so far, but it would be helpful to have more. You can always go on as one of a pair, for moral support.
- Serving: It is a good thing to be able to celebrate Mass with candles, incense etc, so I am very much hoping that those who served before would like to come back – as long, of course, as their circumstances permit!

Ideally we would have at least two servers for the Saturday evening Mass, three for Sunday morning and one for the weekday Masses. There is no age limit: all are welcome to serve, so if you are prepared to continue (or begin for the first time in this parish....) please contact me so we can start as soon as possible. I should be very happy to train up people who have not served here before – ut in omnibus glorificetur Deus: so that in all things God may be glorified!
